

A Melting Pot of Tea
Synopsis	Immerse yourself in a unique experience of appreciating Singapore’s history through Tea. Tea, is a common beverage, one that many people around the world can identify with. While Singapore is not historically known to be a major producer of Tea, we were once the main trading hub for tea leaves, with our harbour filled with tea clippers, and our shophouses stacked to the brim. Naturally, tea businesses began to emerge, and a local tea culture was slowly brewing. Being a “melting pot” of racial diversity, the tea culture that develop was as myriad as the local population. A population where tradition, beliefs and identities blended with one another. Explore new ways of looking at Singapore’s diverse society through 4 different cups of tea, and get real hands on experience of the entire process, from leaf to cup. There is nothing quite like this! Video Link: https://vimeo.com/307707990
